

What Constitutes a TEAM?

Dear Family & Friends:

I have heard TEAM described as “Together Everyone Accomplishes Much.” However, because I am often the visible face of BFL in the West, one can easily think BFL Africa is “Ernest Ehabe”. This is far from the truth. BFL is a TEAM effort. BFL is you, through your prayers, giving and going, me, and a host of indigenous staff and volunteers as well as other organizations that come along side are making a HUGE difference. We are seeing new churches planted and ministries that are affecting every spectrum of the African life for the glory of God!

I have traveled with a few BFL team members during my visits to the USA but I wish you could meet all of them. They are all aware of you and know BFL exists because of God’s call on your life to partner with us in our collective quest of bridging the gaps, changing mindsets and ultimately transforming our cultures through the power of the gospel. Because I cannot bring them all to the USA, I want to use different issues of our BFL newsletter to introduce you to our hard working team.

Behind each of these smiling faces is a story. Stories of brokenness, frailty and weakness woven together with healing, confidence and strength to create a tapestry that attests to the goodness of God in all spheres of life. Often, many of these team members work in quiet and are not as visible as me. But they are equally making sacrifices. Often, like all of us, they are in great need of vision, encouragement, training and resources to fulfill their Kingdom potential. In this issue I will introduce you to Jochebed Ambe and Caleb Yengo.

Similarly, there are other ministries like Missionary Tech Team that are by proxy a great part of the work of BFL through their contributions. Tech Team has worked with BFL for over 12 years. Helping with architectural drawings, planning, web and newsletter designs, etc, etc.

Ephesians 4:16 talks about “...the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work.” (NIV) Thank you for being a part of the BFL body in our joint service to Christ in coming alongside indigenous folks and helping them become spiritually, socially and economically vibrant as together we plant new churches and initiate innovative ministries - bridging the gap, changing mindsets & transforming our culture... to the standard of Christ!

Serving Him together,

Meet Jochebed Ayiwo Ambe

In front of Baka Pygmy hut, during field trip to the Eastern part of Cameroon.

Jochebed grew up in a religious environment where she was exposed to God's word and participated in church activities. As one of 9 children of a Presbyterian (CYJ). Incidentally, this is one of the youth ministries BFL supported with evangelistic outreaches at the University of Buea! It was also through this youth ministry that Jochebed got to know the ministry of Bread For Life. Unbeknown to me, she worked behind the scene in organizing outreaches that BFL sponsored in partnership with CYJ and local churches in the late 90s and early 2000s.

After graduation from the University in December 2001 Jochebed like a vast majority of Cameroonian youth had difficulties finding a stable and paying job. She did whatever she could, just to have funds to pay her taxi and to stay busy. Most jobs she found paid between $50 to $70 a month, not enough to pay taxis and rent, but she took them anyway.

It was during this period that God providentially led her to BFL. She was hired as an Administrative Assistance in 2009. This was an act of faith on our part, because, BFL did not have the funds to pay her. A church in Port Orchard, WA initially committed to assisting BFL with $100 to supplement Jochebeds monthly stipend, unfortunately, they stopped within a year because of their financial situation. Jochebed plays a pivotal role in the ministries of BFL. She now serves as Office & Financial manager, Teams & Outreach coordinator and in many other capacities.

Like most ministries, every staff is supposed to raise their own support. Unfortunately, it has been impossible to generate support in a country where unemployment is over 50%. We are continuing to build in such a way that, if Jesus tarries, BFL Cameroon will become not just self-propagating, self-governing, self-theologizing (contextualization) but, also self-sustaining. Would you prayerfully join us in raising the support minister she had knowledge about God and His word but did not have a personal relationship with God.

In 1995 during her first year in high school Jochebed regularly would attend a student bible study group which held every evening at the student hostel. It was during this time she began to realize that it is possible to be a follower of Christ. This group was led by a 17 year old girl whose life was also a true example of a Christian. Jochebed kept participating in this study group for more than a month. One afternoon, after having heard a message on holiness, she was convicted by God's Spirit and later on surrendered her life to Jesus Christ.

It was through this bible study group that the desire to serve the Lord started burning in her heart. In synergy with other believers in school and amidst persecution from friends, family and even the school authorities, a Bible Club was formed on campus and Jochebed was actively involved in reaching out to fellow students.

Jochebed continued her studies at the University of Buea where she earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Environmental Science. While at the University, she was very involved in a youth movement call Cameroon Youth for Jesus

Meet Caleb Tata Yengo

As I write this newsletter, Caleb and Jochebed are in Bamenda meeting with some in the leadership of the Cameroon Baptist Convention. Bread for Life will be planting a new church under CBC in early December. They are there to do final planning for the outreach in early December which will lead to a new church plant!

Caleb comes from a polygamous family of 12 children. His father was a nominal Muslim for most part of his life before being converted into Christianity. From such a large family, life was not at all easy while growing up. The many ills of polygamy which includes divisions, hatred and jealousy were a major setback.

Caleb came to know the Lord Jesus at the age of 12 and developed a passion for teaching and helping others. He graduated from the University of Buea in 2007, with a degree in Environmental Science and was fortunate worked as a research assistant for a Non Governmental Organization (although the pay was nothing to write about)!

Caleb answered God's call to serve as a missionary with Careforce UK. He served for 2 years at Elmfield church in London (UK) as a youth and children's worker and then returned to his native country of Cameroon, serving in teaching and discipling young converts in his local church and subsequently volunteering with BFL as Director of Training & Church Relations. Caleb has a huge love for music and spends most of his spare time singing and playing acoustic guitar. He is excited about being part of the BFL team, serving with an eagerness to change lives for the glory of his Lord. In addition to his many roles, Caleb will be pioneering a BFL related Church plant in the heart of the University of Buea in 2013.
